PULLMAN TURNS A SOMERSAULT

Knights Templar in Wreck of Atlantic Express on the Union Pacific.

(By Associated Press.)

(By Associated Press.)

JUNCTION CITY, KAN., September 19.

Knights Templar suffered to-day when the Pullman section of the castbound Atlantic Express on the Union Pacific was wrecked by the spreading of the rails while the train was running at high speed. The Pullman cars left the track, and the one at the rear of the train rolled off an embankment, turning over three times. There were thirty-two persons in this car. Six of them were severely hurt, and the rest suffered painful injuries. The last two cars of the train were occupied by the St. John's Commandery, Knights Templar, No. 1, and Calvary Commandery, Knights Templar, No. 13, both of Providence, R. I. A number were injured. J. Goff and H. Clarke, of Charlotte, N. C., were bruised.
